

China cancels travel warning in Mexico

Written by

Tuesday, 01 September 2009 16:05 -

China cancels travel warning in Mexico

Direct flights from China to Mexico had been resumed, said China's National Tourism Administration (NTA) in a statement on its website Thursday.

At the same time, group tour services to Mexico, which had been suspended for over two months, had been resumed, according to the statement.

NTA warned Chinese citizens to postpone their trips to Mexico on April 28 out of concerns over the A/ H1N1 influenza outbreak in the country.

(Xinhua News Agency July 6, 2009)

editor: www.kaisertour.com